

BMS Service Engineer

Description

Our client requires an additional BMS Controls Service Engineers, the experienced engineer will be proficient with Trend or Andover Continuum systems

They are looking for a BMS Controls Service Engineer who is either Trend or Andover biased, experience with writing and modifying software would be an advantage however there will be ongoing training available. In addition to the software skills our client would like the successful BMS Controls Service Engineer to be competent with graphics, there would be an element of training on this particular skill set if needed as well.

As the BMS Controls Service Engineer you will have a strong electrical background and a good understanding of HVAC plant. Industry related training which should include Trend or Andover courses as a minimum would be beneficial for this role.

Job Benefits

Car or 5K Allowance + Pension, Healthcare, on going controls training

Employment Type

Full Time

Beginning of employment

ASAP

Duration of employment

Permanent

Industry

BMS

Job Location

Birmingham

Base Salary

£ 35,000 - £ 45,000

Date posted

16th August 2018